Company G, 109th Infantry

I, PFC Eddie D. Slovik #36896415 Confess to the Desertion of the United States Army. At the time of my Desertion we were in ALBUFF in France. I came to ALBUFF as a Replacement. They were shelling the town and we were told to dig in for the night.
 The following morning they were shelling us again. I was so scared never and trembling that at the time the other replacements moved out I couldn't move. I stayed there in my fox hole till it was quite and I was able to move. I then walked in town. Not seeing any of our troops so I stayed over night at a French hospital. The next morning I turned myself over to the Canadian Provost Corp. After being with them six weeks I was turned over to American M.P. They turned me loose. I told my commanding officer my story. I said that if I had to go out there again I'd run away. He said there was nothing he could do for me so I ran away again AND I'LL RUN AWAY AGAIN IF I HAVE TO GO OUT THERE.
