JUVENILE AND YOUTHFUL OFFENDER RECORD STATEMENT
(AR 601-210)

Each applicant for enlistment in the Army is required to sign a statement as to whether or not he has any type of record of juvenile delinquency or of being a youthful offender. If he denies such record and it is discovered after enlistment, he may be subject to an undesirable discharge for fraudulent enlistment.

If he admits having such a record, enlistment action will be held in abeyance pending a complete investigation of the facts in the case.

It is the policy of the Army that the fact of adjudication as a youthful offender or juvenile delinquent by a state, or disposition by Federal juvenile authorities, is not in itself a bar to enlistment. AN APPLICANT IS JUDGED AS TO HIS FITNESS FOR THE ARMY BY HIS CHARACTER AS OF THE TIME OF HIS APPLICATION FOR ENLISTMENT.

S T A T E M E N T

May 29, 1961
(date)

I have read and understand the above information.

My answer to question, "Do you have any type of record of juvenile delinquency or of being a youthful offender?" is Yes.

If my answer to the above question is yes, following are the complete facts:

A friend and I were playing around in an ally and we noticed a broken window in the back of a clothing store - we then got a clothes hanger which was lying on the ground and unbent it so we could stick it through the window and "hook" some clothes which we did. The clothes that didn't fit us, we gave to a Christmas fund at school and that's how we got caught.

ARMED FORCES SECURITY QUESTIONNAIRE

I - EXPLANATION

1. The interests of National Security require that all persons being considered for membership or retention in the Armed Forces be reliable, trustworthy, of good character, and of complete and unswerving loyalty to the United States. Accordingly, it is necessary for you to furnish information concerning your security qualifications. The answers which you give will be used in determining whether you are eligible for membership in the Armed Forces, in selection of your duty assignment, and for such other action as may be appropriate.

cannot be compelled to furnish any statements which you may reasonably believe may lead to your prosecution for a crime. This is the only reason for which you may avail yourself of the privilege afforded by the Fifth Amendment in refusing to answer questions under Part IV below. Claiming the Fifth Amendment will not by itself constitute sufficient grounds to exempt you from military service for reasons of security. You are not required to answer any questions in this questionnaire, the answer to which might be incriminating. If you do claim the privilege granted by the Fifth Amendment in refusing to answer any question, you should make a statement to that effect after the question involved.

II - ORGANIZATIONS OF SECURITY SIGNIFICANCE

There is set forth below a list of names of organizations, groups, and movements, reported by the Attorney General of the United States as having significance in connection with the national security. Your age at the time of such association, circumstances prompting it, and the extent and frequency of involvement, are all highly pertinent, and will be fully weighed. Set forth all such factors under "Remarks" below, and continue on separate attached sheets of paper if necessary.

2. Your statement concerning membership or other associations, with one or more of the organizations named may not, of itself, cause you to be ineligible for acceptance or retention in the Armed Forces.

3. If there is any doubt in your mind as to whether your name has been linked with one of the organizations named, or as to whether a particular association is "worth mentioning", make a full explanation under "Remarks".
