		G-2			2			3	WDSLL 94-32
		G-3			3				GRADE—SURNAME—PHONE Lt.Col. Harlow - 3524
FILE No.	SUBJECT Direct commissioning of Sgt. Joe Louis Barrow.						DATE 12 Mar 45

SUMMARY:

1. Congressman Adam Clayton Powell wrote the President on 6 March suggesting the direct appointment of Sergeant Joe Louis Barrow to commissioned grade. The Secretary to the President referred the letter on 9 March to the Secretary of War for attention and acknowledgment.

2. The attached reply, for the Secretary of War's signature, advises the Congressman that instructions were issued in October, 1943, which discontinued all direct appointments in the Army except to very rare categories, and that the giving of a direct commission to this soldier would, therefore, be in direct contravention to these instructions, and would serve only to shake the confidence of our soldiers in the integrity of our procedures.

COORDINATION:

3. None.

Tissue copy of sheet is prepared for Office, Chief of Staff, as well as comeback and stayback if necessary.

2. As brief of long memorandum for Chief of Staff (three pages or more). Tissue copy of sheet is not necessary.

ROUTING.—Routing information and action requested are indicated by "x," check (✓), or number in appropriate box. As Summary Sheet clears each office, abbreviation of that office in routing box is lined out and papers are forwarded to next office indicated on sheet.

IDENTIFICATION.—Office symbol or abbreviation of office of preparation, grade, surname, and telephone number of dictator, file reference, subject, and date are placed in boxes indicated. File number and subject should be as brief as possible consistent with clarity.

COMPOSITION.—Information presented on Summary Sheet should be sufficiently condensed to be contained on face of sheet, although second page on plain bond may be prepared if necessary. Headings used on Summary Sheet are: SUMMARY and COORDINATION.

Under COORDINATION are stated organizations and individuals from whom concurrence or nonconcurrence has been obtained and explanation of unresolved concurrences (if any).
