

Fowler, James Bonard

 Guest Book

posted 6 months ago July 10th, 2015

Print  Font Size:

James Bonard Fowler, age 81, died July 5th, 2015 at his home after a fearless battle with pancreatic cancer. Mr. Fowler is survived by his wife, Noi Fowler; two children, Clay Fowler and Tracey Schraeder. He also leaves behind a grandson, Trey Fowler and a great-grandson, Timothy Jackson Fowler. Mr. Fowler is predeceased by his third child, Timothy Fowler. Bonard was a veteran of the Vietnam War, where he earned several medals, including a purple heart, three silver stars, and four bronze stars. He grew up in Black, AL, the son of Dewey and Mary Lee Fowler. His brother Robert Fowler lost his life serving his country in Vietnam in the year 1968. Then, Bonard Fowler courageously joined the army and continued to serve in the Vietnam War and endure the fight for our Freedom. The love for his family motivated him to continue his service in the war. He served many years with great merit. His family recognizes his discipline and strong character. His strengths were in his loving heart and sacrifices made to assure that everyone around him knew his love for them. James Bonard Fowler completely loved his family. His family was by his side in the end. James Bonard Fowler, often called "Papa" constantly talked about his extended family. To him, Mr. Fowler's family was everyone that visited him regularly and got to know the real Bonard. The folks that knew him fell in love with him. Mr. Fowler and the family are forever grateful. Mr. Fowler's wish was to eliminate any ceremonies and services. Mr. Fowler was laid to rest in a family plot at Geneva City Cemetery. Bottoms-Garden Chapel of Hartford 334-588-3250 is in charge of arrangements. Please sign the guest book at www.dothaneagle.com.