MEMORANDUM OF CONSIDERATION

I certify that hereinafter is recorded the record of consideration of the Army Board for Correction of Military Records in the case of the above-named individual. A quorum was present during the consideration.

Present:	Mr. Oliver Kennedy	Chairman
	Mr. Dominic R. Ciccotelli	Member
	Mr. James L. Stroud	Member
	Mr. John W. Matthews	Executive Secretary
	Mr. Watts P. Tyler	Examiner

The Board, established pursuant to authority contained in 10 U.S.C. 1552, convened at the call of the Chairman on the above date. AR 15-185, the regulation governing the operation of the Board, provides that each application and the available military records pertinent to the corrective action requested will be reviewed to determine whether to authorize a hearing, recommend that the records be corrected without a hearing, or to deny the application.

The Board may deny an application if it determines that insufficient relevant evidence has been presented to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice. Following consideration of the case and having made its determination thereof, proceeded to other business.

Applicant requests correction of military records as stated in application to the Board and restated herein.

The Board considered the following evidence:

NAME: SLOVIK, EDDIE D., 36 896 415, (Deceased)

APPLICANTS REQUEST: The former service member (FSM) is deceased. Application is filed by Mr. Edward P. Woods and Mr. Robert DeFinis (Executors of the Estate of Mrs. Antoinette Slovik) on behalf of the FSM's widow, Mrs. Antoinette Slovik, also now deceased, for reconsideration of her application for correction of military records pertaining to the FSM to show that she is entitled to the proceeds of the FSM's National Service Life Insurance (NSLI) of $10,000.00, plus interest from the date of the FSM's death.

APPLICANTS STATE: The applicant's have submitted a copy of the record of trial by general court-martial and extracts from the service records of the FSM in which Mr. Woods (Defense Counsel at the Trial) has made various comments and/or contentions concerning the matters, actions and statements contained therein. On practically every page he has made some comment concerning the matters recorded. Of particular note are his comments on pages 41 and 128 of the record of trial, concerning the findings of Army psychiatrist who examined the FSM on 26 Oct 44, and the letter the FSM wrote to General Eisenhower on 9 Dec 44. The entire appeal is contained in the Official Military Personnel File.

MATERIAL EVIDENCE OF RECORD: Incorporated in this memorandum and included by this reference are the military and medical records which reflect in pertinent part:

Date of Birth: 18 February 1920

The FSM was inducted into the Army of the United States on 3 Jan 44 and entered on active duty on 24 Jan 44. He completed basic training at Camp Walters, Texas and was then assigned to duty in Europe as a replacement (infantryman) in August 1944.

On 11 Nov 44 the FSM was convicted by a general court-martial on a charge of desertion to avoid action against the enemy and sentenced to be shot to death with musketry. As a result, he was shot to death on 31 Jan 45.

A prior application for the same stated action resulted in a recommendation for denial by this Board in 1977. The recommendations were approved by the Assistant Secretary of the Army on 12 Aug 77. The case summary and Board proceedings, prepared at that time, are attached.

AR 15-185 which governs the operation of the Board for Correction of Military Records provides that after final adjudication of a case, further consideration will be granted only upon presentation of newly discovered relevant evidence not previously considered by the Board and then only upon recommendation of the Board and approval by the Secretary of the Army.

DISCUSSION: Applicants have requested that the ABCMR respond to each comment made by the FSM's defense counsel annotated in the submitted copy of the FSM's records and record of trial. No attempt has been made to respond to each and every comment, contention, or allegation made. However, the pertinent issues pertaining to this case are covered in the discussion that follows.

Although the ABCMR has been given rather broad powers under 10 U.S.C. 1552 to change records where there is a perceived error, or injustice, the Board is constrained by the law of the land and must make correction to military records within the framework of the governing statutes of the Federal Government. To change a record to show an action outside of such framework would usurp the intent of the law.

In the case at hand the FSM was convicted by a general court-martial of deserting the service. Under the law (38 U.S.C. 711) it matters not whether he thereafter died of natural causes, or was executed by a firing squad, because the conviction alone precluded the payment of the NSLI to the designated beneficiary.

It is recognized that the applicants are contending that the FSM's record of trial is in error and that he should have never been convicted of a charge of desertion. While the Board does not normally involve itself with the reopening of the proceedings, findings and judgements of court-martial cases, it appears to be appropriate in this case to respond to some of the issues raised. The basic pertinent issues are:

a. Whether the FSM was suitable for military service.

The FSM has been depicted through a book written on his life, and subsequently in a motion picture, as an underprivileged misfit who should not have been inducted into the Army. It is acknowledged that the FSM came from a very poor family and he had a record of juvenile delinquency prior to his induction into the Army. However, there is no evidence contained in his service records to indicate, or suspect, that he was unsuited for military service. The record shows he completed basic training at Camp Walters, Texas; that his efficiency was "satisfactory" and that he was a "skilled rifleman." Further, the letter he wrote to General Eisenhower in December 1944 is written in clear, logical terms indicative of an individual who was fully capable of serving in the military.

b. Whether the FSM should have been brought to trial on a charge of desertion.

It is recognized that the applicant was a new replacement who had not been exposed to actual combat before he arrived in France in 1944. However, none of the other replacements who accompanied him from the United States had been exposed to actual combat. He stated that he was unable to participate because of his nerves and apparently felt this set him apart from the rest of the replacements. While the record is devoid of the feelings of the other replacements being sent into combat, it is reasonable to expect that most incurred a case of "nerves" when they first arrived on the field of battle. In the case of the FSM the record shows that he chose to be locked up in the comparative safety of the stockade, rather than participate in combat with his fellow soldiers. Not only did he make such a verbal request he prepared and signed confession to desertion in order to insure such incarceration. Being apparently of sound mind, and making no issue of failure to participate in combat because of religious beliefs, it appears that it was appropriate to bring him to trial on the charge of desertion. His counsel tends to confirm this opinion as he now states that he believed the FSM was mentally, emotionally and physically capable of combat.

c. Whether the evidence presented at the trial was sufficient to establish the FSM's guilt of the charge of desertion.

The Defense Counsel now contends that there was a number of procedural and administrative errors in the conduct of the FSM's trial and implies that the totality of such errors should have resulted in a "not guilty" verdict, or mistrial. His pertinent contentions are: (1) that it was never proven that the FSM was actually assigned to Company G, 109th Infantry, since the morning reports for the period were apparently lost; (2) that prior to the trial a letter from higher headquarters was read by the President of the Court indicating, essentially, that general courts-martial were too soft in their determinations of sentences; that he strenuously objected to the reading of the letter because it was prejudicial to the FSM; (3) that the FSM amended his confession on 24 Oct 44 to state that he did not desert his unit at Elbeuf, France (on 25 Aug 44), but did not move out when other men left their foxholes; that the information was not made known to him because as the FSM's Defense Counsel he would have "pounced on it and demanded a finding based on the lesser offense of absence without leave."

There appears to be ample evidence to support the conviction for desertion. Not only did he make and sign a confession to desertion, the testimony given at the trial indicates that he made a specific inquiry of his unit commander on 8 Oct 44 asking whether he would be considered a deserter if he left the Company, after the unit commander had placed him under arrest; that upon being informed that such action would constitute desertion he departed the company area and remained absent until 9 Oct 44.

Concerning the new issues now raised by the FSM's Defense Counsel, it appears that the alleged administrative errors were not of such significance to result in a "not guilty" verdict, or mistrial. While the morning reports may have been lost, it appears to be clear that the FSM was actually assigned to Company G, 109th Infantry at the time. The FSM made no issue of that matter during the trial. There is no evidence to support the contention that a letter from higher headquarters was read to the court before the trial indicating that courts-martial sentences were too soft. Further, even if such was the case, it would not establish that it unduly influenced the court in this case. The court consisted of mature men and there is no reason to believe that they did not render a decision consistent with their own individual beliefs at the time. Although the Defense Counsel now contends that he was not aware that the FSM had amended his confession on 24 Oct 44, it certainly appears that he should have been aware of the matter. The FSM was available for him to question and it stands to reason that every matter concerning the issues at hand would have been discussed prior to the trial. At any rate the FSM and counsel were given the opportunity to make any statement they chose at the trial. It should be noted that counsel now states that the FSM was well aware of the elements of desertion as they were explained to him in explicit terms by himself and others.

In consideration of all the evidence, allegations, and information presented by the applicant in relation to the evidence of all available records pertaining thereto, it is concluded that there is insufficient justification for making a recommendation to the Secretary of the Army to reopen the case.

DETERMINATION: The applicant has failed to submit sufficient relevant evidence to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice to warrant a formal hearing.

John W. Matthews
Executive Secretary

Ref. to: Pvt. Eddie D. Slovik, 36,896,415

My husband has made an appeal for a Dependency Discharge, to the Officer in command. The American Red Cross has investigated the case, and have informed me that all the necessary information was submitted to the War Department, and that the discharge now rests in your hands. I am desperately in need of medical and home care. My husband presence at home is necessary for the support and care I need. My health condition constantly grows graver and I am forced to make this appeal.

AGFE-A 201 Slovik, Eddie D.
(6 July 44)

18 July 1944.

Mrs. Antoinette W. Slovik, 6320 Terres Avenue,
Dearborn, Michigan.

Dear Mrs. Slovik:

I refer to your letter of 6 July 1944, regarding the discharge from military service of your husband, Private Eddie D. Slovik, on account of dependency.

Under the present policy of the War Department discharges from military service for the reason stated will be granted only when the necessity therefor is extreme and the evidence submitted clearly indicates that the discharge of the soldier is necessary to prevent or relieve destitution.

Authority has been delegated to commanders in the field to take final action on cases of this nature, without reference to the War Department. Since the officer exercising discharge authority has taken unfavorable action on this soldier's application for discharge on account of dependency, as stated in your letter, the War Department is reluctant to interfere in the matter.

I regret that a favorable reply cannot be made in this case.

Sincerely yours,

J. A. ULIO
Major General,
The Adjutant General.

Pat. Eddie D. Slovick
K. O. N. 36 876 45
Co. D. 57 Inf. Tropic 4th Platoon,
Camp Walters, Tennes.

Hon. President:

I, Antoinette H. Slovick, the wife of the above named soldier in the United States Army, am appealing to you, the President of the United States of America, for a Dependency Discharge for my husband. An appeal was made by my husband on March 27, 1944. On June 12, 1944, I was informed by Headquarters Infantry Replacement Training Center,

at Camp Walter, Texas, that his application for a discharge on grounds of dependency was disapproved.

Due to the complications of Infantile Paralysis, a dislocation of the hip, and the increasing difficulties that are brought on by the ever increasing Epileptic Seizures since my husband's induction into the army, makes it necessary for me to make this appeal. My husband's presence at home is necessary for the support and care I need. I am not able to support myself or care for myself, and am unable to get help from any other source, than

the Government Allotment of fifty dollars ($50.00) per month. Due to the fact, that the conditions of my health and welfare, are growing graver by the day, and the need of medical care is becoming more apparent. I do need my husband's help desperately and immediately. I am unable to go on without his aid any longer. At this very moment, I have in my possession, a dollar and twenty five cents ($1.25), and
the Government Allotment
won't be available before the First of August I have sold clothes & other personal belongings in order to live.

I have tried desperately to carry on, but I am unable to do anything else now, except to beg for aid and mercy from you the President of the United States of America.

I pray, that the dear Lord, may guide you in making a decision in my favor, in this appeal for a Dependency Discharge for my husband. I appeal to the very inmost
kindness in your hearts, to grant the discharge for my husband.

Thanking you for your kindness and every consideration in this case,

I have faith that you will give me a new lease on life, by granting the Discharge. Remains

Sincerely Yours
