Dear Mr. Marc Levy,

This is in response to your FOIA request # FA-19-0014/FP-19-012980 that you submitted to the Army FOIA office, dated November 14, 2018, in which you requested a copy of the military documents and related documents of the writer Ernest Hemingway.

The Center of Military History is not a repository of records and we do not have any of the primary source documents, which would contain the detailed information that you are seeking. The official records generated by the Army, by law, pass through a retirement process until they eventually arrive in the custody of the National Archives and Records Administration. To obtain the records, you will have to contact the National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road, College Park, Maryland 20740-6001 or online at <https://www.archives.gov/>

However, we were able to locate a response to a request from 1978 pertaining to a reported court martial of Ernest Hemingway in World War II that we thought may be of interest to you. Please see the enclosed document.

If you have questions regarding this request, please contact Ms. Siobhan E. Shaw at the above address or at telephone number (202) 685-2756 or via e-mail SIOBHAN.E.SHAW.CIV@MAIL.MIL

Sincerely,
