TO: Commander, 802d Air Base Group, Schilling Air Force Base, Kansas

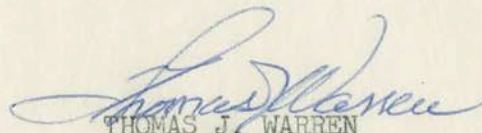

1. After personal interview with Basic Airman Marvin Gay Jr., AF13589961, 802d Supply Squadron, it is my opinion and recommendation that he should be discharged from the United States Air Force with a General Discharge under the provisions of Air Force Regulation 39-16, and Letter, Department of the Air Force, 1 December 1955, subject: Discharge of Airmen During Their First Enlistment.

2. The reasons for this recommendation are as follows:

- a. Lackadaisical attitude toward responsibility.
- b. Indifferent attitude toward duty.
- c. Easily influenced by individuals with whom he associates.

3. This airman's service has not been such as to warrant discharge under other than honorable conditions.

S T A T E M E N T

1. This is to advise that I desire Basic Airman Marvin Gay Jr., AFL3589961, be eliminated from the service with a general discharge under the provisions of Air Force Regulation 39-16 and letter, Department of the Air Force, 1 December 1955, subject: Discharge of Airman During Their First Enlistment.

2. The reasons for this action are explained as follows:

a. Airman Gay is uncooperative, lacks even a minor degree of initiative, shows very little interest in his assigned duties, and does nothing to improve his job knowledge. This, and the attached statements, plus that outlined below definitely indicates that he is unproductive and a liability to the service.

b. His AQE scores are as follows: Mechanical 25, General 35, Administrative 60, and Electrical 20.

c. He has been a constant problem to his supervisor and to the First Sergeant ever since he has been assigned to this Squadron. In this respect, he reported in one day late on 22 March 1957. After being assigned to a section, he was thoroughly briefed on his duties and responsibilities. Between this time and 9 April 1957 he was reported late for work four times. On 22 April 1957 Airman Gay did not report for duty after the noon chow and was found in his bed. He was relieved from his duty section and turned over to the First Sergeant for rehabilitation. His performance of duty continued to be unsatisfactory in as much as he required constant supervision and continually absented himself without permission. At approximately 0300 hours 7 June 1957, Airman Gay was discovered in an unauthorized area and was subsequently arrested by the Air Police.

d. He evidences a dislike for the service and indicated nothing that can show that he can meet Air Force Standards.

e. He has been repeatedly counselled by me and his supervisors on job and Air Force behavior requirements to no avail.

3. I am convinced that further retention in the service would be a waste of time, effort and money.

4. Request that he be discharge from the service with the least possible delay.
